Trump Comes out As Pro-Vaccine – Says We All Need To Get Measles Shot

Today U.S. President Donald Trump on urged Americans to get the measles vaccination.

“The vaccinations are so important. This is really going around now,” Trump told reporters at the White House. “They have to get their shots.”

> Nearly 700 cases have been confirmed by federal health officials as of this week in a resurgence that has been concentrated in a handful of states – New York, Washington, Michigan, New Jersey, and California – although 22 states in all are affected. Measles can cause severe complications or death.

USA Today just published an article worth reading, Why Big Pharma distrust is fueling the anti-vaxxer movement and playing a role in the measles outbreak

We’d like to take a moment to remind our readers of the one Candidate big pharma is most scared of. Bernie Sanders. He doesn’t take corporate money. He talks about reining in big pharma all the time. He hasn’t come out against vaccines but we have to get the money out of politics and some of the corruption out of the pharmaceutical industry first.
